Elliott Seeks Vindication Through Muskogee League

MUSKOGEE, OKLA. Nov. 25 —

The regular meeting of the local Negro Business League held Thursday evening November 12 in the Carter bldg., was a failure owing to slim attendance.

The president, S. D. Hooker, was not present because of the illness of one of his children, also the secretary, E. D. Nickens was absent. The Hon. A. G. W. Sango was one of those present.

T. J. Elliott, president of the state League made a talk in which he suggested the propriety and urgency of preparing an article to be signed by the leading citizens of Muskogee and published in the leading Negro journals in order to counteract the influence exerted by the series of article appearing in The Tulsa Star and other race papers in Texas and elsewhere.

Cornered.

"That chauffeur was a great time as a politician."
"I thought he would be."
"But you gave him a letter of recommendation."
"Of course. And I advise you to do the same. It's the only way to get him to go peacefully."

Wm. H. Harrison, of Oklahoma City will address the Local Business League at the Dreamland Theatre tomorrow afternoon.

TO OUR READERS.

Every family in this country are now subscribers to various magazines and newspapers. The total amount of money paid for these publications probably amounts to several thousand dollars annually. It is money well spent, of course, because we must have something for the family to read.

But if you can save about seventy-five per cent of this money, and still have all the papers and magazines you want, it is worth considering, is it not?

We have made arrangements whereby we can save this community hundreds of dollars by merely ordering their reading material through our office. Our best offer is a choice of any three of forty magazines, arranged in thirty-five clubs in combination with our own paper for only $1.25 a year.

You will find this big offer advertised on another page of this paper. Look up the advertisement and read all about this remarkable offer. Select the club you like best, and send us your order right in—mail it, telephone it, or bring it to us, and we will fix it up at once so that you get your magazines.

If there is anything in the advertisement you do not understand, drop into our office sometime and let us explain all about it. It's the best clubbing offer we have ever seen, and we are anxious to have every reader take advantage of it.

SADLY SORDID.

"I suppose you agree that reform is necessary."

"Oh, yes," replied the political boss. "Reformers introduce a whole lot of legislation that is important to us practical guys because of the amount some people are willing to pay for the privilege of evading it."

ADMIRER OF SHERLOCK.

Mrs. Kawler—Well, my little man, I suppose you are going to follow in your father's footsteps when you grow up.

Bobbie—No, I'm not. I'm going to be a detective and follow in other people's footsteps.

GOT BACK AT HER.

Mrs. Gabbiegh (nudging her husband, who is snoring)—William, you'd make less noise if you kept your mouth shut.

Husband (only half awake)—So'd you.—Boston Evening Transcript.

Tulsa Woman May Sue Katy Railroad Company

Because the Katy ticket agent at Coweta refused to make a fire in the colored waiting room last Sunday night, Mrs. Wm. Cherry, who a passenger there at that time waiting for the midnight train for Tulsa, is confined in her home in this city suffering a severe illness as a direct result of the exposure she was forced to undergo. It is very likely that a damage suit will be filed against the Katy railroad company growing out of the impudent and discourteous treatment accorded Mrs. Cherry by the very unaccommodating ticket agent.

Notice

JUST THINK OF IT You can get three big monthly magazines with THE TULSA STAR all one year for $1.25. Don't miss this bargain. Just remind us that you want three magazines when you renew your subscription.

We don't make a cent on these magazines. The only reason we offer them to our customers is for the sole purpose of saving our reader money and to give all as much reading matter as possible for the money.

It is our intention to give our subscribers all the benefits and advantages we receive from magazine publishers. Every time you order magazines or farm journals it will cost you more money than we charge. It is for your benefit alone that we offer you these magazines at such a education.

IN TRAINING.

"Father, I have cut down your favorite cherry tree," announced a modern youth.

"That's a good start toward the presidency, my son. Fine basis for an anecdote. Now, what's the next step?"

"I hardly know. Shall I split it into rails, or work it up into golf clubs?"

PUZZLE.

"I was in a quandary this morning when Jinks told me he wanted assistance, as his wife was getting very light-headed."

"Why were you puzzled?"
"Because I didn't know whether she needed a doctor or a hair specialist."

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

A REMARKABLE FAMILY OF ACTORS.

By A. W. MACY.

In 1753 John Kemble, an English theatrical manager, opposed a match between his daughter and a member of his company, not wishing her to marry an actor. He finally gave consent, however, consoling himself with the thought that the young man was not much of an actor. In this he was mistaken, for the young man, whose name was Roger Kemble, not only succeeded well in his profession, but became the founder of a family that is remarkable in the annals of the English stage. Twelve children were born to the couple, of whom eight reached maturity; and every one of the eight made some effort on the stage. The eldest child, Sarah, became the renowned Mrs. Siddons. The oldest son, John Philip, was probably the greatest actor of his day, and was known as "the great Kemble." The eleventh child, Charles, was a renowned comedian, while his daughter, Fanny Kemble, was probably the best known to the public of all the family. Her sister, Adelaide, attained considerable popularity as a public singer. Her son married the daughter of General Grant.

ITS NOT WHAT YOU USED TO BE

Don't tell people what you were
Once upon a time.
Don't boast of millions you used to have
When you were in your prime.
The friends you spent your money with
Will turn from you and say:
"It's not what you used to be
It's what you are today."
